What coming back to the NAC looks like - Phases and Timelines

To be interpreted in conjunction with the work from the Season 1 & 2 Team, the Reopening Team and prevailing legislation and guidelines.

Phase 1	Phase 2	Phase 3	Phase 4
URRENT
Gradual return to on-site work  PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 1 reopening guidelines: Opening businesses that can immediately meet or modify operations to respond to public health guidelines.	Reopening of public spaces and 1 Elgin terrace  PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 2 reopening guidelines when the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk assessments, which may include some service industries, and additional office and retail workplaces.  No clear guidelines for restaurant re-opening at this time.	Programming resumes for limited gatherings  PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 3 reopening guidelines when the province will consider:  Opening all workplaces responsibly.  Relaxing restrictions on public gatherings.  No clear guidelines for restaurant re-opening at this time.	Expanded programming PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario relaxing restrictions. TBD
Deployment of essential services, and gradual return of maintenance personnel, parking services and stagehands.	Return to the workplace for some office workers, however employees are encouraged to work from home for the foreseeable future.	Employees supporting programming and F&B events return to the NAC.  Telework may continue for employees that are non-essential to building operations.	Telework may continue for employees that are non-essential to building operations.
Individual artists continue to perform or rehearse via livestream from home.	Artists continue to perform/rehearse via live-stream from home.  Small groups of artists could begin performing/rehearsing at the NAC.	Artists continue to perform/rehearse via live-stream from home.  Larger groups of artists could begin performing/rehearsing at the NAC.	Artists continue to perform/rehearse via live-stream from home.  Increasingly larger groups of artists could begin performing/rehearsing at the NAC.
Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.	Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.	Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.	Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.
Onsite audiences and visitors	Doors open, access to our building is permitted, but controlled.  No audiences in performance venues.  Programming could include outdoor or small events in the public spaces.	Resumption of some programming for limited audiences in our performance venues, and continued programming in public spaces.	Expansion of programming for larger audiences in all four performance venues plus public spaces.
	Gradual return to on-site work  PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 1 reopening guidelines: Opening businesses that can immediately meet or modify operations to respond to public health guidelines.  Deployment of essential services, and gradual return of maintenance personnel, parking services and stagehands.  Individual artists continue to perform or rehearse via livestream from home.  Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.  Onsite audiences	Gradual return to on-site work PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 1 reopening guidelines: Opening businesses that can immediately meet or modify operations to respond to public health guidelines.  Deployment of essential services, and gradual return of maintenance personnel, parking services and stagehands.  Deployment of essential services and gradual return of maintenance personnel, parking services and stagehands.  Return to the workplace for some office workers, however employees are encouraged to work from home for the foreseeable future.  Artists continue to perform or rehearse via livestream from home.  Small groups of artists could begin performing/rehearsing at the NAC.  Continuation of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.  Onsite audiences  And visitores  Doors open, access to our building is permitted, but controlled.  No audiences in performance venues.  Programming could include outdoor or progra	Gradual return to on-site work  PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 1 reopening guidelines: Opening businesses that can immediately meet or modify operations to respond to public health guidelines.  Deployment of essential services, and gradual return of maintenance personnel, parking services and stagehands.  Individual artists continue to perform or rehearse via live-stream from home.  Deployment of current live-streamed and pre-recorded digital programming.  Programming resumes for limited gatherings PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 2 reopening guidelines when the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk assessments, which may include some service industries, and additional office and retail workplaces.  No clear guidelines for restaurant re-opening at this time.  Pleaving restrictions on public gatherings.  No clear guidelines for restaurant re-opening at this time.  Programming resumes for limited gatherings PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 3 reopening guidelines when the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk assessments, which may include some service industries, and additional office and retail workplaces.  No clear guidelines for restaurant re-opening at this time.  Programming at workplaces responsibly.  Pelaixing restrictions: Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 3 reopening guidelines via the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk assessments, which may include some service industries, and additional stage 2 reopening guidelines via the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk assessments, which may include all workplaces responsibly.  Pelaixing restrictions:  Linked to Province of Ontario's Stage 3 reopening guidelines when the province will consider:  Opening more workplaces, based on risk and additional the province of Ontario's Stage 3 reopening guidelines for restaurant re-opening at more province will consider: